

What does WellAway cover for COVID-19?

COVID-19 and End of Public Health Emergency Update

The federal government confirmed May 11, 2023, as the end of the Public Health Emergency. Beginning May 12, 2023, coverage for COVID-19 vaccines, testing and treatment will be as follows:

- COVID-19 vaccines — WellAway will cover COVID-19 vaccines and booster serum recommended by the Advisory Committee on Immunization Practices as adopted by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, including the administration of such vaccines and serums as part of your Wellness and Preventive Services benefit (if applicable) and as stated in your Summary of Benefits.
- Over-the-Counter tests — WellAway will no longer cover over the counter COVID-19 tests for dates of service starting after May 11, 2023, unless mandated by state regulatory requirements.
- Surveillance testing — WellAway will not cover surveillance testing.
- COVID-19 lab-based testing — WellAway will cover FDA approved or authorized COVID-19 lab tests ordered by your physician or healthcare provider (e.g., pharmacist, nurse or doctor) as long as the test is: (i) consistent with the CDC guidelines; (ii) diagnostic; and (iii) determined to be medically appropriate by an individual's healthcare provider in accordance with current accepted standards of medical practice. COVID-19 lab-based testing will only be covered at an In-Network, independent free-standing facility (e.g., Quest Diagnostics, LabCorp) and is subject to Deductible, Coinsurance, Copayment and Maximum Benefit amounts (as applicable) as stated in your policy terms and conditions.
- COVID-19 treatment — WellAway will cover FDA approved or authorized COVID-19 treatments, including Paxlovid and molnupiravir (Lagevrio), in accordance with your policy terms and conditions.
- Telehealth — WellAway will cover telehealth visits in accordance with your policy terms and conditions.
- Virtual Visits — WellAway will cover virtual visits in accordance with your policy terms and conditions.
